

Ignite Dance Artist Training Course

This course is designed to provide disabled and D/deaf emerging and professional dance artists with high quality specialist led training.

The booking system is flexible allowing you to book specific workshops or enrol on the whole course-full schedule overleaf.

Specialist Facilitators include...

Louise Katerega- A nationally renowned figure in the UK dance scene, Louise is based in Leicester and has a varied career as a performer choreographer educator and mentor to people of all ages and abilities. Louise is especially acknowledged for her development work in the field of dance and disability and is the founder of Foot in Hand dance company.

Marc Brew- Marc has been working in the UK and Internationally as a dancer, choreographer and teacher for the last 12 years and is currently Associate director Fellow with Scottish Dance Theatre. He spent 5 years with CandoCo Dance Company and is the founder of Marc Brew Company.

StopGAP- Resident at Farnham Maltings, StopGAP is the UK's top Integrated dance company working on a small to mid scale in the UK and Internationally.

Samantha Etheridge- Samantha is currently Director of Gloss Arts Education Agency for Gloucestershire County Council and has over 10 years experience working in the arts. Her roles have ranged from freelance artist to Arts Curriculum Manager and has led artist and teacher training. She has successfully fund raised for major projects and has a particular interest in developing a workforce able to work inclusively with disabled and non disabled young people.

Sarah Pickthall-Sarah is an artist, trainer and consultant who uses coaching principles at the heart of her work. She helps people to explore community, inclusion and equality through groundbreaking artistic interventions, questions and involvement workshops.

